PROPERTY OVERVIEW

Conveniently located along paved, year-round Camp Five Road with power available at the road frontage, this diverse ±80-acre property offers an outstanding combination of recreation, privacy, and long-term investment potential. Situated just a short drive from the Iron Mountain-Kingsford area, the tract provides easy access while maintaining the seclusion and natural beauty buyers seek in Michigan's Upper Peninsula. The property features rolling terrain and a diverse mix of hardwood cover, younger timber, and natural regeneration that creates an attractive Northwoods setting. The varied forest conditions provide visual appeal, quality wildlife habitat, and long-term recreational and timber management potential. Deer, bear, grouse, and other native wildlife are frequent visitors to the property, making it an ideal destination for hunters and outdoor enthusiasts. An established internal road system allows convenient access throughout the tract for hunting, trail riding, hiking, and general property management. Several openings within the property offer opportunities for food plots, camping areas, or future cabin and homesite locations...
