PROPERTY OVERVIEW

PRICE REDUCED Located just six miles north of Troy in the heart of Montgomery County, the Substation Road Tract offers a rare opportunity to own a ±231-acre timberland investment with outstanding wildlife value and future income potential. This property features approximately 194 acres of well-established 7-year-old loblolly pine, growing strong and on track for its first thinning within the next 8 to 10 years. These young pines represent a solid step in a long-term investment strategy, setting the stage for future returns from timber harvests. In addition to the planted pine, the property includes 37 acres of mature and regenerating hardwoods, predominantly along the stream corridors. This natural hardwood buffer not only provides excellent habitat diversity for deer, turkey, and other...
