PROPERTY OVERVIEW

Located in northeastern Cabarrus County, North Carolina, the Glenmore Road Tract consists of three contiguous parcels totaling approximately 57.6 deeded acres. The property offers approximately 1,750 feet of frontage along Glenmore Road, gently rolling terrain, existing internal access, and a mix of recently harvested acreage and remaining woodland. A gated farm and logging road extends into the tract and is passable for forestry, hunting, and recreational access. The road would likely require improvement before supporting regular residential traffic, but it provides an established route into the property for current use and future land-management work. Approximately 38.6...
