PROPERTY OVERVIEW

This 36.9± acre wooded tract is located along County Line Road in Montgomery County, North Carolina, with frontage on a public gravel road. The property extends north from County Line Road into a rural, predominantly wooded area and offers approximately 37 acres for hunting, recreation, and private land ownership. The tract was timbered around 2002 and has since naturally regenerated. The current forest is predominantly loblolly pine with hardwoods scattered throughout and smaller areas containing a more consistent hardwood component. Stand density and composition vary across the property, providing established woodland cover throughout most of the tract. The terrain is rolling, with a mixture of moderate slopes and gentler areas. The varied topography and wooded cover provide a suitable setting for deer hunting and other outdoor recreation. The property has an established history of hunting use and is currently subject to a hunting lease...
